Your Excellency,

I wish to express my concern about Dawit Isaak, journalist and owner of the newspaper Setit. He was arrested on 23 September 2001 during a crackdown on independent media in Eritrea and has since been held incommunicado. The Eritrean authorities refuse to disclose his whereabouts or details of his health and well-being. Isaak has never been charged or brought to trial.

In light of the above, I call on you to disclose Dawit Isaak's whereabouts and immediately and unconditionally release him as he is imprisoned solely for peacefully exercising his right to freedom of expression. In the meantime, I urge you to ensure that he is granted regular and unrestricted access to his lawyer and family in detention, and to any medical care he may require.

Thank you for your attention.

I am kindly awaiting your reply.

Yours sincerely,

Dear President Biden,

Leonard Peltier is a member of the American Indian Movement (AIM), which promotes Native American rights. In 1975, two FBI agents were killed during a confrontation involving AIM members. Peltier was convicted of their murders but has always denied killing the agents. There are serious concerns about the fairness of proceedings leading to his trial and conviction, including for example the prosecution's withholding of evidence that might have assisted Peltier's defence. In light of these concerns, the former US Attorney who supervised the prosecution team post-trial, James Reynolds, has since called for clemency.

Leonard Peltier is now 76 years old, has spent more than 44 years in prison, and has been repeatedly denied parole. There are serious concerns about his deteriorating health. His lawyers have recently submitted a new petition for clemency.

I urge you to grant Leonard Peltier clemency on humanitarian grounds and as a matter of justice.

Thank you for your attention. I am kindly awaiting your reply.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Director,

I wish to express my concern about the continued imprisonment of respected Uighur professor Ilham Tohti. Tohti was a well-known critic of China's ethnic and religious policies in the Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous Region, but known for his moderate views. Tohti was given a life sentence for "separatism" in September 2014, solely for the peaceful expression of his opinions.

Therefore, I respectfully call on you to ensure the immediate and unconditional release of Ilham Tohti. Pending his release, I hope that you will respond favourably to the request that he be moved to a prison closer to his family in Beijing. In addition, I call on you to grant Tohti regular access to his family and lawyers of his choice, and an independent medical examination and any medical treatment he needs.

Thank you for your attention.

I am kindly awaiting your reply.

Yours sincerely,
